ARTICLE 2 – TERRITORY

The territory of this church shall be the territory of Ghana as defined by the 1992 Constitution of Ghana, and any other place outside Ghana where the Church may establish a branch permitted by law.

ARTICLE 3 – OBJECTIVES

The Church and its Mission

WE BELIEVE that the Church is the Body of Christ, the habitation of God through the spirit, with divine appointments for the fulfilment of the great commission. Each believer, born of the Spirit, is an integral part of the General Assembly and Church of the Firstborn, which are written in heaven. Ephesians 1:22, 23; Ephesians 2:22; Hebrews 12:23

Since God's purpose concerning man is to seek and to save that which is lost, to be worshipped by man, to build a body of believers in the image of His Son, and to demonstrate His love and compassion for the world, the prior reason for being part of the Assemblies of God church is:

- ❖ To be an agency of God for evangelizing the world. Acts 1:8, Mathew 28:19, Mark 16:15, 16
- ❖ To be a corporate body in which man may worship God. 1 Corinthians 12:13

- ❖ To be a channel of God's purpose to build a body of saints being perfected in the image of His Son. Ephesians 4:11-16, 1 Corinthians 12:28, 1 Corinthians 14:12
- ❖ To be people who demonstrate God's love and compassion for the world. Psalms 112:9, Galatians 2:10; 6:10, James 1:27

In furtherance of the above Mission, the church shall pursue the following Objectives:

1. To approve all scriptural teaching, methods and conduct and to disapprove unscriptural methods and conduct.
2. To encourage and promote evangelism.
3. To provide a basis of fellowship among Christians of like faith.
4. To establish and maintain departments and institutions such as Bible Schools, Health, Relief and Development Agencies, Agricultural, Educational and Vocational, Printing Presses, Bookshops and such other bodies as may be necessary for the propagation of the Gospel and the work of the fellowship of the Assemblies of God, Ghana.
5. To have the right to buy, take, accept, lease or otherwise acquire, own, hold in trust, use, convey, mortgage, lease, or otherwise dispose of real and personal property, tangible and intangible of whatsoever kind, to borrow or to invest monies as deemed necessary, and to issue bonds, debentures, and notes of whatsoever kind, and to create trust deeds and mortgages, and to enter into contracts all as may be necessary for the work of the Ministry.
6. To encourage and promote the edification and total well-being of the believers. Luke 2:52.
7. To determine the qualification(s) of Ministers, laity and other workers of the church and to supervise ministerial matters in the Assemblies of God, Ghana.

8. To receive tithes, offerings, donations, gifts and to raise funds by other Biblical and ethical means to be used for the work of the Ministry.
9. To do any such thing(s) that is deemed necessary for furtherance of its Mission.

ARTICLE 4 – RELATIONSHIP WITH OTHER ASSEMBLIES OF GOD ORGANIZATIONS

The Assemblies of God, Ghana shall maintain:

1. Relations with sister National Assemblies of God Churches throughout the world as will be internationally recognized among Assemblies of God national organizations.
2. Close collaboration with Ghanaian Assemblies of God Churches in other countries.

ARTICLE 5 – PRINCIPLE OF FELLOWSHIP AND GOVERNANCE

The Assemblies of God, Ghana shall represent as nearly as possible in detail, the body of Christ as described in the New Testament Scriptures, recognizing the principles inherent in the body as also inherent in the fellowship, particularly the principles of unity, co-operation and equality in matters of fellowship and governance.

ARTICLE 6 – STATEMENT OF FUNDAMENTAL TRUTHS

1. The Scriptures Inspired

The Scriptures, both Old and New Testaments, are verbally inspired of God and are the revelation of God to man, the infallible, authoritative rule of faith and conduct (2 Timothy 3:15-17; 1 Thessalonians 2:13; 2 Peter 1:21)

2. The One True God

The one true God has revealed himself as the eternally self-existent “I AM,” the Creator of heaven and earth and the Redeemer of mankind. He has further revealed himself as embodying the principles of relationship and association as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit (Deuteronomy 6:4; Isaiah 43:10,11; Mathew 28:19; Luke 3:22).

The Adorable Godhead

(a) Terms Defined

The terms trinity and persons, as related to the godhead, while not found in the Scriptures, are words in harmony with Scripture, whereby we may convey to others our immediate understanding of the doctrine of Christ respecting the Being of God, as distinguished from “gods many and lords many.”

We therefore may speak with propriety of the Lord our God, who is One Lord, as a Trinity or as one Being of three persons,, and still be absolutely scriptural (examples, Matthew 28:19; 2 Corinthians 13:14; John 14:16,17).

(b) Distinction and Relationship in the Godhead

Christ taught a distinction of persons in the godhead which He expressed in specific terms of relationship, as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, but this distinction and relationship, as to its mode is inscrutable and incomprehensible, because unexplained (Luke 1:35; 1Corinthians 1:24; Matthew 11:25-27; 28:19; 1 Corinthians 13:14; 2 John 1:3,4).

(c) Unity of the One Being of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit

Accordingly, therefore, there is that in the Father which constitutes Him the Father and not the son; there is that in the Son which constitutes Him the Son and not the Father; and there is that in the Holy Spirit which constitutes Him the Holy Spirit and not either the Father or the Son. Wherefore, the Father is the Begetter; the Son is the Begotten; and the Holy Spirit is the one proceeding from the Father and the Son. Therefore, because these three persons in the godhead are in a state of unity, there is but one Lord God Almighty and His name one (John 1:18; 15:26; 17:11, 21; Zechariah 14:9).

(d) Identity and Cooperation in the Godhead

The Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit are never identical as to person; nor confused as to relation; nor divided in respect to the godhead; nor opposed as to cooperation. The son is in the Father and the Father is in the Son as to relationship. The Son is with the Father and the Father is with the Son, as to fellowship. The Father is not from the son, but the Son is from the Father, as to authority. The Holy Spirit is from the Father and the Son proceeding, as to nature, relationship, cooperation, and authority. Hence, no person in the godhead either exists or works separately or independently of the others (John 5:17-30, 32, 37; 8:17, 18).

(e) The Title, Lord Jesus Christ.

The appellation Lord Jesus Christ is a proper name. It is never applied in the New Testament either to the Father or to the Holy Spirit. It therefore belongs exclusively to the Son of God (Romans 1:1-3, 7; 2 John 3).

(f) The Lord Jesus Christ, God with Us

The Lord Jesus Christ, as to His divine and eternal nature, is the proper and only Begotten of the Father but as to His human nature, He is the proper Son of Man. He is, therefore, acknowledged to be both God and man; who because He is God and man, is “Immanuel,” God with us (Matthew 1:23; 1 John 4:2, 10, 14; Revelation 13: 17).

(g) The Title, Son of God

Since the name Immanuel embraces both God and man, in the one person, our Lord Jesus Christ, it follows that the title Son of God describes His proper deity, and the title Son of Man, His proper Humanity. Therefore, the title Son of God belongs to the order of eternity and the title Son of Man to the order of time (Matthew 1:21-23; 2 John 3; 1 John 3:8; Hebrews 7:3; 1:1-13).

(h) Transgression of the Doctrine of Christ

Wherefore, it is a transgression of the doctrine of Christ to say that Jesus Christ derived the title Son of God solely from the fact of the Incarnation, or because of His relation to the economy of redemption. Therefore, to deny that the father is a real and eternal Father and that the Son is a real and eternal Son, is a denial of the distinction and relationship in the Being of God; a denial of the Father and the Son; and a displacement of the truth that Jesus Christ came in flesh (2 John 9; John 1:1,2, 14,18,29,49; 1 John 2:22,23; 4:1-5; Hebrews 12:2)

i. Exaltation of Jesus Christ as Lord

The Son of God our Lord Jesus Christ, having by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high, angels and principalities and powers having been made subject unto Him. And having been made both Lord and Christ, He sent the Holy Spirit that we, in the name of Jesus, might bow our knees and confess that Jesus Christ is Lord to the glory of God the Father until the end, when the Son shall become subject to the Father that God may be all in all (Hebrews 1:3; 1 Peter 3:22; Acts 2:32-36; Romans 14:11; 1 Corinthians 15:24-28).

ii. Equal Honor to the Father and to the Son

Wherefore, since the Father has delivered all judgment unto the Son, it is not only the express duty of all in heaven and on earth to bow the knee, but it is an unspeakable joy in the Holy Spirit to ascribe unto the Son all the attributes of deity, and to give Him all the honor and the glory contained in all the names and titles of the godhead except those which express relationship (see paragraphs b, c, and d), and thus honor the Son even as we honor the Father (John 5:22,23; 1 Peter 1:8; Revelation 5:6-14; Philippians 2:8,9; Revelation 7:9,10 4:8-11).

3. The Deity of the Lord Jesus Christ

The Lord Jesus Christ is the eternal Son of God. The Scriptures declare:

- a. His virgin birth (Matthew 1:23; Luke 1:31, 35).
- b. His sinless life (Hebrews 7:26; 1 Peter 2:22).
- c. His miracles (Acts 2:22; 10:38).
- d. His substitutionary work on the cross (1 Corinthians 15:3; 2 Corinthians 5:21).
- e. His bodily resurrection from the dead (Matthew 28:6; Luke 24:39; 1 Corinthians 15:4).

- f. His exaltation to the right hand of God (Acts 1:9, 11; 2:33; Philippians 2:9-11; Hebrews 1:3).

4. The Fall of Man

Man was created good and upright; for God said, “Let us make man in our image, after our likeness.” However, man by voluntary transgression fell and thereby incurred not only physical death but also spiritual death, which is separation from God (Genesis 1:26, 27; 2:17; 3:6; Romans 5:12-19).

5. The Salvation of Man

Man’s only hope of redemption is through the shed blood of Jesus Christ the Son of God.

- a. Conditions to Salvation

Salvation is received through repentance toward God and faith toward the Lord Jesus Christ. By the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Spirit, being justified by grace through faith, man becomes an heir of God according to the hope of eternal life (Luke 24:47; John 3:3; Romans 10:13-15; Ephesians 2:8; Titus 2:11;3:5-7).

- b. The Evidences of Salvation

The inward evidence of salvation is the direct witness of the Spirit (Romans 8:16). The outward evidence to all men is a life of righteousness and true holiness (Ephesians 4:24; Titus 2:12).

6. The Ordinances of the Church

- a. Baptism in Water

The ordinance of baptism by immersion is commanded in the Scriptures. All who repent and believe in Christ as Saviour and Lord are to be baptized. Thus they declare to the world that they have died with Christ and that they also have been raised with Him to walk in newness of life (Matthew 28:19; Mark 16:16; Acts 10:47, 48; Romans 6:4).

b. Holy Communion

The Lord's Supper, consisting of the elements—bread and the fruit of the vine—is the symbol expressing our share of the divine nature of our Lord Jesus Christ (2 Peter 1:4); and memorial of His suffering and death (1 Corinthians 11:26); and is enjoined on all believers “till He comes!”

7. The Baptism in the Holy Spirit

All believers are entitled to and should ardently expect and earnestly seek the promise of the Father, the baptism in the Holy Spirit and fire, according to the command of our Lord Jesus Christ. This was the normal experience of all in the early Christian church. With it comes the power for life and service, the bestowment of the gifts and their uses in the work of God. All believers are entitled to and should ardently expect and earnestly seek the ministry (Luke 24:49; Acts 1:4, 8; 1 Corinthians 12:1-31). This experience is distinct from and subsequent to the experience of the new birth (Acts 8:12-17; 10:44-46; 11:14-16; 15:7-9). The baptism in the Holy Spirit comes with such experiences as an overflowing fullness of the Spirit (John 7:37-39; Acts 4:8), a deepened reverence for God. Acts 2:43; Hebrews 12:28 an intensified consecration to God and dedication to His work (Acts 2:42), and a more active love for Christ, for His Word, and for the lost (Mark 16:20).

8. The Initial Physical Evidence of the Baptism in the Holy Spirit

The Baptism of believers in the Holy Spirit is witnessed by the initial physical sign of speaking with other tongues as the Spirit of God gives them utterance (Acts 2:4). The speaking in tongues in this instance is the same in essence as the gift of tongues (1 Corinthians 12:4-10, 28), but different in purpose and use.

9. Sanctification

Sanctification is an act of separating from that which is evil, and of dedication unto God (Romans 12:1,2; 1 Thessalonians 5:23; Hebrews 13:12). Scriptures teach a life of “holiness without which no man shall see the Lord” (Hebrews 12:14). By the power of the Holy Spirit we are able to obey the command: “Be ye holy, for I am holy” (1 Peter 1:15, 16). Sanctification is realized in the believer by recognizing his identification with Christ in His death and resurrection, and by faith reckoning daily upon the fact of that union, and by offering every faculty continually to the dominion of the Holy Spirit (Romans 6:1-11,13; 8:1,2,13; Galatians 2:20; Philippians 2:12,13, 1 Peter 1:5).

10. The Church and Its Mission

The Church is the body of Christ, the habitation of God through the Spirit, with divine appointments for the fulfilment of her Great Commission. Each believer, born of the Spirit, is an integral part of the General Assembly and church of the Firstborn, which are written in heaven (Ephesians 1:22, 23; 2:22, Hebrews 12:23).

Since God’s purpose concerning man is to seek and to save that which is lost, to be worshiped by man, and to build a body of believers in the image of His Son, the prior reason of being part of the Assemblies of God Church is:

- a. To be an agency of God for evangelizing the world (Acts 1:8; Matthew 28:19, 20; Mark 16:15, 16).
- b. To be a corporate body in which man may worship God (1 Corinthians 12:13).
- c. To be a channel of God's purpose to build a body of saints being perfected in the image of His Son (Ephesians 4:11-16; 1 Corinthians 12:28; 14:12).

The Assemblies of God exists expressly to give continuing emphasis to this reason-for-being in the New Testament Apostolic Pattern by teaching and encouraging believers to be baptized in the Holy Spirit.

- d. To be believers who demonstrate God's love and compassion to the world (Psalm 112:9; Galatians 2:10; 6:10; James 1:27)

This experience:

- i. Enables them to evangelize in the power of the Spirit with accompanying supernatural signs (Mark 16:15-20; Acts 4:29-31; Hebrews 2:3,4).
- ii. Adds a necessary dimension to a worshipful relationship with God (1 Corinthians 2:10-16; 1 Corinthians 12-14).
- iii. Enables them to respond to the full work of the Holy Spirit in expression of fruit and gifts and ministries as in New Testament times for the edifying of the body of Christ and care for the poor and needy of the world. (Galatians 5:22-26; 1 Corinthians 14:12; Ephesians 4:11, 12; 1 Corinthians 12:28; Colossians 1:29).

11. The Ministry

A divine call and scripturally ordained ministry has been provided by our Lord for the threefold purpose of leading the Church in: (1) evangelization of the world (Mark 16:15-20), (2) worship of God (John 4:23, 24), and (3) building a Body of saints being perfected in the image of His son (Ephesians 4:11, 16) and (4) meeting human need with ministries of love and compassion (Psalm 112:9; Galatians 2:10; 6:10, James 1:27)

12. Divine Healing

Divine healing is an integral part of the gospel. Deliverance from sickness is provided for in the Atonement, and is the privilege of all believers (Isaiah 53:4, 5; Matthew 8:16, 17; James 5:14-16).

13. The Blessed Hope

The resurrection of those who have fallen asleep in Christ and their translation together with those who are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord is the imminent and blessed hope of the Church (1 Thessalonians 4:16, 17; Romans 8:23; Titus 2:13; 1 Corinthians 15:51, 52).

14. The Millennial Reign of Christ

The second coming of Christ includes the rapture of the saints which is our blessed hope, followed by the visible return of Christ with his saints to reign on the earth for one thousand years (Zechariah 14:5; Matthew 24:27, 30; Revelation 1:7; 19:11-14; 20:1-6). This millennial reign will bring the salvation of national Israel (Ezekiel 37:21, 22; Zephaniah 3:19, 20; Romans 11:26, 27) and the establishment of universal peace (Isaiah 11:6-9; Psalm 72:3-8; Micah 4:3, 4).

15. The Final Judgment

There will be a final judgment in which the wicked dead will be raised and judged according to their works. Whosoever is not found written in the Book of Life, together with the devil and his angels, the beast and the false prophet, will be consigned to everlasting punishment in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death (Matthew 25:46; Mark 9:43-48; Revelation 19:20; 20:11-15; 21:8).

16. The New Heavens and the New Earth

I,..... having been called as a Minister of the Lord, do solemnly affirm that: I will be obedient to the Lord, to the Word of God and dedicate myself to the Ministry and well-being of the Church of God; I will be loyal and faithful to the vision of the Assemblies of God, Ghana, and abide by the decisions of the General Council, the Executive Presbytery, the Regional Council and other official bodies of the Assemblies of God, Ghana; I will serve in any community that I am sent to and lay the foundation for the establishment of Local Church; I recognize that my vision and work as a Minister of the Gospel and Church Planter may result in the acquisition of movable and immovable properties and therefore pledge that any property that will be acquired for use by the congregation which I oversee shall belong to the Assemblies of God, Ghana as a Corporate Body.

I further solemnly affirm that: In the unlikely event of me leaving the Assemblies of God, Ghana, I will leave peacefully and will not persuade, by my action or in word, anyone to follow me; and also pledge, in such circumstances, to hand over to the Board of Trustees all Church properties whether or not acquired through, or by my initiative.

I will at all times protect, preserve and defend the Constitution of the Church; I further promise to work in harmony with the Ministers above and under me, and the flock over which the Holy Ghost will set me as an overseer (So help me God).
